Nottingham, Jr., in the afternoon of Wednesday, January 16th, 3 o'clock, at Holmes Presbyterian Church, Bayview, Va.

The new academy at Accomac C. H., was opened on Wednesday with Miss Mary Goods added to the corps of teachers. A picture of the building will appear in our columns as soon as the staging is removed. The county superintendent says it is the handsomest and best country school building in the State.

ninsula, situated near Cobbs Station, Northampton county. As will be seen from advertisement everything will be furnished except labor. A grand opportunity for a family of three or four boys or two families united. Read it if you can furnish the labor and call on them.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

Onancock.

Miss Amanda Lankford, of Princess Anne, Maryland, spent the holidays with her cousin, Miss Susanne Lankford.

Col. and Mrs. Charles W. Cullen, of Georgetown, Delaware, spent the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. R. L.
Shield.

It is generally believed here that Onancock will soon have another bank. The names of local and Baltimore capitalists are associated with the proposed enterprise.

The usual Christmas sociable of the Presbyterian Church was held Wednesday night at the residence of Mr.
E. E. Miles. Invitations were by no means denominational, and good will and good cheer reigned.

Mrs. F. A. Pope, of Baltimore, is the guest of Miss M. N. Groton, Mrs.
J. L. Cahall, of Dover, Delaware, and her mother, Mrs. B. K. Powell, and Dr. Frederick A. Powell, of Sioux City, Iowa, of his brother, Dr. Oscar L. Powell.

Misses Lillian and Lydia McGrath entertained their friends Monday night. The attendance was large, and amusing and interesting plays and games added to the enjoyment of the evening. Elegant refreshments were served.

A delightful reception was given Saturday night by Capt. John P. L.
Hopkins in honor of Messrs. John and Arthur Nelson, of San Antonio, Texas, schoolmates of his son, Parker.
In the Texas game of guessing, the prize was won by Onancock.

A number of ladies of the town have organized a Wednesday Matinee Card Club. The first meeting at the residence of Mrs. L. D. T. Quinby was attended by about fifteen. Mrs.
Quinby was chosen president, and Mrs. George H. Powell, secretary and treasurer.

General regret is felt here at the death of Dr. Belt and his two sons in the railroad disaster near Washington, D. C. Mrs. Belt is the niece of Mrs. W. H. Parker, who was visiting her at the time. The boys have spent one or two summers in Onancock, and are remembered as well for their bright intellects, as for their manly, gentlemanly bearing.

A number of students spent the Christmas holidays at home. Among them were Miss Constance R. Nock, of Farmville; Miss Ruth Kellam, of the Woman's College, Lynchburg; Mr. W. N. Powell, of Richmond College; Messrs. John M. West and Wm.
F. Hopkins, of the University of Virginia; Parker Hopkins, of Locust Data Academy, and H. Page Parker, of the Peabody Institute, Baltimore.

Mr. R. T. Ames has sold his interest in the business heretofore conducted by Ames, Mills & Co. The purchasers were Messrs. J. C. W. Leather-bury, Joseph S. Mills and Wm. L.
Beloeat. It is understood that Mr.
Mills will conduct the clothing and gent's furnishing departments, and Messrs. Leatherbury and Beloeat the other branches. Stock will be taken the coming week, and transfer made at its completion.

Lena Taylor, of Haroldsville, N. C., have returned to spend their vacation with parents and relatives.

Capt. Jno. Winder, while filling his gasoline engine at Chincoteague this week, came near losing his life. The lead pipe connecting the engine burst, and the boat was almost destroyed by explosion. The loss to Mr.
Winder is between $200 and $300. The wind blowing in the opposite direction saved his life.

New Church.

Mr. Wm. R. Covington and family moved on Monday to their new home, near Pocomoke city.

cupied building, near station, recently purchased by him of Mr. L.
Floyd Nock, and says he is there to stay and ready for business.

Mr. J. A. Meelheim, of Hornstown, moved to our town at the beginning of the year and was heartily welcomed by all of our people. Mr. Downs also has made his home with us.

Mrs. F. A. Covington, after a year's absence in Pocomoke City, is back again to his old home to the delight of his many friends here and has resumed work at his old place of business.

Mrs. L. F. Marshall spent part of Xmas in Norfolk as the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. H. Pennwell; Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Marshall visited their son, Mr. A. J. Marshall, at Greenbackville, on New Years day.

Write to us on for estimates doors sash, blinds, stair-rails and all other kinds of building material, hardware, paints, &c. Stock large, prices low.

Clarence Wheaton, of Westminster, Md., and Mr. Edward Rowley, of Reading, Pa., spent Christmas with friends at this place.

Dr. Wm. M. Burwell, who for several weeks has been taking post graduate course in Medical school in New York, has returned home. He has as his guest at this time, his brother, Dr.
Custis Burwell, of Floyd county.

Mr. Wm. Harrison, a gallant Confederate soldier and respected citizen, died December 28th, 1906, aged 79 years. He moved here from Northampton county a few years ago. His wife and two daughters survive him.

Christmas passed off quietly with us. The men for the most part spent it at work instead of loafing around.
From a thousand to fifteen hundred barrels of oysters were shipped daily during the holidays from this place at $3.00 to $4.00 per barrel.

Arrivals at Atlantic Hotel this week: J. C. Powell, S. A. Bowen,

One of the most enjoyable events of the season was a social, given at the Atlantic Hotel on December 31st, in honor of Miss Annie Foeque, Miss Sallie Scarborough, of Onancock, and Miss E. R. Crismond, of Portsmouth, Va. The evening was pleasantly spent, vocal and instrumental music being attractive features of the occasion. At 11 o'clock delightful refreshments were served by Santa Claus.
Between the hours of 12 and 1 o'clock the guests departed wishing every one a happy New Year.

Mells.

Prospective building boom in view for this station, next Spring.

Miss Eula Rogers visited friends in Charlotte county this Xmas.

Have heard land would be given free, if we could have a church built here.

Mr. L. N. Harmon has found his gate? Had a wedding near his house you know.

Prospect is for a very large acreage of round potatoes in this section the coming season.

Miss Bessie Taylor and Miss Rew, of Cashville, were with friends in town this week.

New Year and what beautiful Spring-like days and don't forget the New Year resolutions.

Our new blacksmith, Mr. W. S.
Budd, is kept busy. Horse showing is a specialty with him.

held a very interesting watch-night service at our church at the close of the old year.

Miss Gracie Oldham has returned from an extended visit to friends in Baltimore and resumed her work in our school on Wednesday.

Our village stores enjoyed the largest and best Xmas trade ever known here. More people and team were in our village on the three days previous to the holidays than in ever before.

Several of the people of our village went to Chincoteague on gasoline launch of Mr. John Winder last Monday and soon after they had landed on the dock an explosion occurred which blew the top off of the boat.

Mr. Clifton Lang and Miss Florence Fisher, of Bloomtown, were quietly married at the parsonage here on Wednesday evening, December 26th, Rev. Mr. Hearn officiating. All of us wish them a happy journey through life. Other marriage bells are confidently expected to be ringing in this section in the near future.

I will be at Atlantic for the practice of my profession on Thursday and Friday, January 10th and 11th, 1907.

Miss Lou Johnson entertained her Sunday School class at luncheon Tuesday last and was presented by them with an elegant salad bowl. She has been teaching the same class for 10 years, has now 29 scholars. None have died during that time.

Among those who have returned to school at the close of the holiday vacation are Preston B. Parks, at Richmond Medical College, Edgar Johnson, V. P. 1. Blackburg, Misses Nona and Cecil Parks and Mr. Theodore Darnell, Jr., to W. M. C. at West-minister.

On Wednesday, December 26, during the temporary absence of his mother Harry, the 15 months old son of Mr. O. Thomas Barnes, was burned so badly that it died a few hours later. It is supposed his clothing caught from matches as his 3 year old brother had some in his hand when his mother returned. She was only out of the room about five minutes.

Mr. A. P. White, Sr., a very worthy and consistent Christian gentleman, died Friday night, December 21st,
